you feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system. In recovering from "grippe," or in couvalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed fiesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodly functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Billousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Sands of cures behind it.

Dear Str-Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no sppetite, could not alcen, and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery releved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

expand — swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and inter-feres with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Mr. William F. Carne, in Knighthood, gives the following interesting account of the Alexandria Sisters of Charity:

"The memory of Mother Seton's Sisters of Charity, whose little black bonnets were familiar objects on the Alexandria atreets in the decade from 1830 to 1840, is fading out; and it is a labor of love on the part of the God child of one of them to tell to the younger generation the story of their useful life here.

"About 1830 the brick church facing Royal street, by which Father Joseph Fairclough had replaced the frame chapel bought from the Methodis: facing the alley, was completed, and the pastor had a small but comfortable home. Just then came Father John Smith, S. J., who with indomitable energy strove to expand Catholic activites. He sought at once to establish Catholic schools and an orphan asylum under the shadow of the church.

"Fortunately, real estate in the church neighborhood was then available for the purpose. A vacant lot on the northwest corner of Duke and Royal streets, now Lambert's garden, was bought as a site for the male school, and Bushby's house on the southwest corner of Fairtax and Ladies who have thin hair and whose Duke streets for the female school. This ner to Jonathan Roberts for $1,800. It proved poor property for Roberts, and became scarcely more than a rookery or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph. The Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph. The Sisters came to Alexandria on a popular tide. The liberals among non-Catholics gave them a warm reception. The Howard Association got up concerts for their bene-fit. The Masons of Alexandria-Washing-ton Lodge tendered them free their lodge room to hold a fair, which was one of the events of the day, and for a week the lodge room was occupied by the sisters and their helpers. The old building was remodeled and fitted for their purpose, and a frame school house built on Fairfax street at the south end of their

and both schools flourished for awhile.

"But Catholic success awakened the fervid opposition of bigotry. A Protestant orphan asylum was established and means taken to cut off attendance at the Catholic schools. The sisters found opportunities for wider usefulness elsewhere, and in 1840 leit Alexandria.

Dr. F. J. Murphy purchased their property and converted their convent into a dwelling, where he lived until a few years before his death. It was long by tablish a hostific to the few of the state of the sta tablish a hospital there, but the hope was in vain. The male school, too, went down, and in 1846 the school-house stood untenanted except by rats. Then Brother R. L. Carne, now of Newport News Council, took the work of renewing St. John's Academy, and made it one of the institutions of the city, but that, too has passed away. 'Father Smith and the Sisters have been long beyond the grave. He died of ship fever while ministering to the mmigrants at New York. Sister Mary Agnes poured out her mortal life at the feet of her Master, aiding and consoling the dying of yellow fever at New Orleans. Graves far apart on earth shine to heaven with one radiance."

Predicament of Female Bathers.

Half a dozen girls, daughters of prominent Fort Dodge, Iowa, families, camping on the banks of the Des Moines river, dared each other to go in swim-ming last evening. When all were in the water they looked toward the shore and were thunderstruck to see a tramp gathering up their clothes in a pile. This done, he sat down upon them and began to smoke. For more than a quarter of an hour he pulled at his old black pipe contentedly, while the girls peeped at him, with their heads just above water. Not until a company of young men, coming to visit the girls in camp, were heard in the distance did the hobo go away. The young men arrived. The girls, with the water half choking them as they spoke, told what had bap ened. The young men declared they ould find the brute and lynch him. But they did neither. When the searchers returned to camp the girls were dressed and anxiously waiting to receive company.

Incredible Brutality.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy." he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at E. S. Leadbeater and Sons, drug store.
